WOMEN'S COMMISSION SEEKS BOARD APPOINTMENTS

Lincoln-Lancaster Women's Commission has two vacancies on Advisory Board

Do You Believe in the Advancement of Women?

The Lincoln-Lancaster Women's Commission (LLWC) is actively seeking women and men interested in the advancement of women to fill two vacancies on its Advisory Board.

LLWC is dedicated to identifying, representing and serving, the diverse needs of women in Lincoln and Lancaster County; raising awareness regarding deficiencies in policy that negatively impact women; advising city and county officials on public policy issues; educating the public regarding these issues through a network of coalitions; and serving as an advocate of change by empowering all women in our community and working to improve their lives.

LLWC is a division of the Mayor's Office. Board membership and event participation is voluntary. Two-year term appointments are made by the Mayor's Office and confirmed by majority of the City Council and Lancaster County Board of Commissioners. The board meets the second Wednesday of each month at 5:45 p.m. in the K Street Complex conference room, 440 S. 8th St., Lincoln, NE.

If you are interested in being considered, complete an Advisory Board Appointment Application located on the Web at www.lincoln.ne.gov/city/mayor/women/mtcomsn.htm or call us at 441-7716 and one will be mailed.
